____ I understand that I need to respect all leadership authority on this retreat (including non-WEAG leadership).

____ I understand that I need to respect the property and privacy of others.

____ I understand that I'm not to swear, whine or complain.

____ I understand that I cannot publicly display affection unless I'm married.

____ I understand that I cannot bring alcohol, tobacco, weapons or any drug paraphernalia.

Being on retreat is a privilege, not a right. We hope that your desire to go on retreat is not just about having fun, but to seek an opportunity to learn about or grow closer to Jesus Christ. In order for this to happen for everyone on retreat, we must all uphold some necessary rules.

I agree to the above guidelines and understand that failure to uphold these rules has consequences and could result in my being sent home at my parent's expense.

Medications:

Where capable, we prefer that students administer their own medications. In the case that students need our assistance, the medications should be accompanied by clear instructions signed by the parent, placed in a safe container or plastic bag, and marked clearly with the student's name. Turn this in at Check-In. Please only send the quantity necessary for the weekend, not your entire supply.
